

U.T. POLICE DEPARTMENT SAFETY NOTICE

IN AN EFFORT TO PROVIDE TIMELY AND ACCURATE INFORMATION TO OUR STUDENTS, STAFF, AND FACULTY MEMBERS, THE FOLLOWING FACTS ARE PROVIDED:

CAMPUS INCIDENT

Fondling Residence Hall, East side of campus

The UT Police Department received a police report on Sunday, February 14, 2016 of a fondling that occurred earlier that morning. A female reported a male non-stranger touched her breasts without her consent, physically assaulted her and blocked her from trying to leave the area.

The victim has identified her assailant and the UT Police Department will continue to investigate the incident. The exact location of the incident will be withheld to protect the victim's identity.

Safety Tips:

- Report any and all suspicious activity to police as soon as you are aware of it. Download the Guardian app through the UT app at <http://www.utk.edu/mobile/> and use the tip feature to speak directly with UTPD
- 75-80% of sexual assaults are committed by a non-stranger, classmate, friend, partner, or (ex) partner (Krebs, et al., 2007)
- Trust your intuition, if you feel something is wrong it likely is
- Familiarize yourself with the blue phones in case you have to use one
- If someone is trying to leave, it is unlawful to keep them there against their will

In the event of an attack

- Get to a safe place
- Contact law enforcement immediately
- Preserve any evidence
- Consider the resources available to you through the university, many of which can be found at <http://sexualassault.utk.edu/>

Consent:

The university's policy on sexual misconduct and relationship violence defines "consent" as the knowing and voluntary communication, through words and/or conduct, of an agreement to engage in a particular act, including without limitation a particular act of sexual contact or sexual intercourse. More information on this policy can be found at <http://sexualassault.utk.edu>

Consent is never implied by a person's attire, reputation, consumption of alcohol or drugs, previous consent to sexual acts, or your relationship to the person. Sexual assault is never the victim's fault. The only person responsible for sexual misconduct is the perpetrator.

If you engage in sexual activity, be sure you understand your partner's limits, and communicate your own limits clearly. Don't engage in sexual activities without affirmative consent from your partner.

Even if you are under the influence of alcohol or drugs, you are still responsible for obtaining consent from the other person before initiating sexual contact.

The Clery Act requires the university to notify the campus community of certain criminal activity that occurs on university owned or controlled property. In addition, the university is required to provide safety tips that may aid in the prevention of similar crimes. The intent of a warning regarding a criminal incident(s) is to enable individuals to protect themselves. For further information on the Clery Act: <http://clery.utk.edu/> or <http://clerycenter.org>.
