CAMPUS INCIDENT
Rape
Residence Hall, east side of campus

The UT Police Department received a report of a rape on October 15, 2017 for an assault that occurred early Saturday morning, October 14, 2017. A female student reported a male acquaintance raped her in her residence hall.

The exact location of the incident will be withheld to protect the victim's identity.

Safety Tips:

- Report any and all suspicious activity to police as soon as you are aware of it. Download the Guardian app through the UT app at <http://www.utk.edu/mobile/> and use the tip feature to speak directly with UTPD
- Familiarize yourself with the blue phones in case you have to use one

In the event of an attack

- Get to a safe place
- Contact law enforcement immediately
- Preserve any evidence
- Consider the resources available to you through the university, many of which can be found at <http://titleix.utk.edu/>

Consent:

The university's policy on sexual misconduct and relationship violence defines "consent" as the knowing and voluntary communication, through words and/or conduct, of an agreement to engage in a particular act, including without limitation a particular act of sexual contact or sexual intercourse. More information on this policy can be found at <http://titleix.utk.edu/>

Consent is never implied by a person's attire, reputation, consumption of alcohol or drugs, previous consent to sexual acts, or your relationship to the person. Sexual assault is never the victim's fault. The only person responsible for sexual misconduct is the perpetrator.

If you engage in sexual activity, be sure you understand your partner's limits, and communicate your own limits clearly. Don't engage in sexual activities without affirmative consent from your partner.

Even if you are under the influence of alcohol or drugs, you are still responsible for obtaining consent from the other person before initiating sexual contact.
