

Clery Compliance

In an effort to provide timely and accurate information to our students, staff, and faculty members, the following information is being provided to you so that you can make informed decisions about your safety. The content of this notice includes sexual assault.

On Tuesday, October 18, a student reported a sexual assault to a Campus Security Authority (CSA). While at Neyland Stadium on Saturday, October 15, the student along with their group of friends were groped while walking to their seats.

The student reported while in their seats they witnessed others being assaulted within the same section. Other CSAs on campus have received reports of a similar nature.

None of these incidents were reported to the UT Police Department.

Information we want you to know about your safety and the safety of all Volunteers.

- Report criminal or suspicious activity immediately to the nearest uniformed police officer.
- Report criminal incidents as soon as possible so appropriate measures can be taken for your safety and the safety of others.
- If you see something that doesn't look right or makes you feel concerned, please report that as well.
- In the event of an attack:
 - Get to a safe place
 - Contact law enforcement immediately

- Consider the resources available to you through the university, many of which can be found on the Title IX website.
- For information on crime in the area within the last 60 days, please visit the university's 60 Day Crime Log.

The Clery Act requires the university to notify the campus community of certain criminal activity that occurs on university owned or controlled property. In addition, the university is required to provide safety tips that may aid in the prevention of similar crimes. The intent of a warning regarding a criminal incident(s) is to enable individuals to protect themselves.

For Safety Notices and Clery statistics, crimes are classified according to the regulations of the Clery Act mandated by the Department of Education. Though state law may categorize an incident differently, Clery definitions and classifications are strictly followed when labeling an incident for Clery reporting purposes.
